WE NOMINATE

Frances Tyer Crawford, one of the few woman executives in Princeton University's 207-year history, who with her retirement this summer can—for the first time in nearly three decades—look beyond Labor Day to a Fall of relative calm. First as House Mother for Hun Junior School, later as a leader on the World War II "home front" and for the past 11 years as a member of the University's Administration, Mrs. Crawford has worked long and effectively for others and even in citadels of masculinity has demonstrated that there is much "mere men" will never understand.

Early in 1942, after she had helped organize the Community's airplane-spotting activities, Mrs. Crawford was called to the University as a Director of the Princeton Personnel Index, which had been brought into being to dovetail the wartime demand for, and the supply of, men with special qualifications. The Index, or "talent pool," mushroomed at an incredible rate and promptly pushed itself out of any available space in Nassau Hall. The scene consequently shifted to Mrs. Crawford's Mercer Street apartment where she first ran a personnel service that in 18 months was to make well over 3,500 nominations to 45 government bureaus, specialized branches of the Armed Forces and industry.

As the Nation's manpower situation leveled off in 1943, the Index was shoved into reverse, becoming almost overnight a peacetime job service concerned with guiding Princeton war veterans into the "right" fields of employment. The "G.I. pressure" gradually subsided and out of this clearing-house for information (then headed by Burroughs Mayor P. MacKay Sturges) grew the University's long-range placement program that has held Mrs. Crawford's attention for the past six years. Through it all she has been "in contact" with an estimated 15-to-20 per cent of the University's living alumni and on retirement July 1st was serving as Director of Teacher Placement and also as an Associate Director of Alumni Appointments.

Mrs. Crawford, widow of a chairman of the Department of English at Boston University and the mother of two "scientist sons," has lived and breathed education for most of her 60-plus years. A native of Marblehead, Mass., and raised in the shadows of Phillips Andover Academy (Andover, Mass.) she completed her education at Vassar and was named "president for life" of the Vassar Class of 1909, an honor she was to relinquish in the hectic post-World War II years. Following the death of her husband, who taught at Andover prior to moving "up" to the university level, she established her home here in the early 1920's.

For constantly seeking to be of service to others; for extending a helping hand to hundreds of men in their search for the most satisfying kinds of lifetime work; for knowing that in an age of specialization there is still no substitute for unselfish interest in one's fellow men; she is the Editors' nominee for

Sleeves Rolled Up. Raund Two of the battle over off-street parking lots, scheduled for 7:30 Tuesday night in Borough Hall, is not expected to be staged in an atmosphere of brotherly love. For one thing, the mayor and council are currently on record as unanimously in favor of acquiring various parcels of land in the business district from a number of property owners who do not want to sell.

Both sides have stated that the disagreement will be carried to the courts, a development believed to be unprecedented in this municipality's 140-year history. When attorneys are retained and other aspects of legal jousting incur additional expense, it is but human nature that feeling should run high.

A further twist has been introduced since the first public hearing on June 23. Affected property owners have formed a "Committee for the Preservation of Princeton Property" and have addressed a series of open letters to the mayor and council. One made public this week carries the strongest sort of charge: a direct accusation that Mayor Sturges is supporting the ordinance because the property owned by a corporation of which he is president "will increase in value by $30,000 to $40,000" if the parking lot is created.

The letter asserts that the mayor and Mrs. Sturges are respectively, president and secretary-treasurer of the Central Jersey Land Company, which owns a building at the corner of Spring and Tulane Streets. It estimates that the cost for damages will run as high as $200,000 in this area alone — in contrast to the borough's figure of $128,000 for the acquisition of land for all three lots — and asks:

"Do you think it fair that the taxpayers should be asked to shoulder this tremendous burden for so little benefit when one result is the large increase in the value to property owned by a corporation of which you are president?" The full text of the letter is published as a paid advertisement on page four.

The charge that two chain food stores stand to benefit at the expense of Princeton taxpayers and property owners is contained in the other letter made public this week. Municipal ownership of the land east of Vandeventer on both sides of Nassau is estimated by the committee to run to $200,000 for parking lots which its members feel should be created by the two stores themselves from their "boom profits." The text of this letter appears on page 10.

Some three to four dozen Princetonians, largely those directly affected by the proposed ordinance, constitute the Committee for the Preservation of Princeton Property. Its temporary chairman is John P. Hoff, Jr., nephew of former mayor Joseph S. Hoff, who is one of the principal property owners in the Nassau-Tulane-Spring Street area.

Restrictions on Park Property. Agreement on terms of the gift of 17 acres of the former Marquand estate to the borough has been reached and final transfer of the title awaits only completion of legal formalities.

Mayor Sturges has announced that the three daughters of the late Professor and Mrs. Allan Marquand, Miss Sarnia Marquand of New York, Mrs. Harold Hochschild of 150 Stockton Street, and Mrs. Douglas Delaney of 62 Battle Road, have res-purchased the area from William A. Garrigues, the present owner, for a sum in excess of $50,000.

The borough has accepted the tract as a gift and agreed to the restrictions asked by the donors in order to preserve the area as a park and recreation area.

The first provision designed to make it difficult to divert use of the property is a clause prohibiting all building on the area for 10 years. After this, a structure may be erected only in the northwest corner (bounded by Lovers Lane and Stockton Street) and only with borough approval by referendum.

At the end of 20 years, all restrictions will be lifted, if a borough referendum is passed to that effect. The terms of the gift also call for an advisory committee to aid in management of the property. The committee is to include two members appointed by the borough, and one each by the borough board of education, a garden club and an organization interested in recreation.

Post Office Hopes to Expand. Princeton's full-to-busting post office (built 19 years ago to accommodate a community less than half Princeton's present size) has been authorized to look for additional space. More is needed in virtually every category but funds are currently unavailable from Washington and a decision to rent a building as an annex has been reached.

Postmaster Charles F. Murray has reported that some 7,500 square feet of space is wanted, this to include a mail platform approximately 15 by 50 feet. Full details may be obtained from him at the post office.

On the Business Scene Again. Burnett Griggs, long a well known restaurant operator here, announced this week that he is planning the personal re-arrangement of his establishment at 38-40 Witherspoon Street. The building is now closed for alterations but will serve patrons again on Wednesday, July 15. Hours will be 5 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. Monday through Saturday.

Mr. Griggs has operated the restaurant bearing his name since August, 1920. Prior to that time, he was in the employ of the Campus Club on Prospect Street for a number of years.

Landmark Gone. One of Princeton's oldest trees, an elm which stood in front of the former Henry Van Dyke home on Bayard Lane, has lost its battle to time. After more than two years of efforts to save it by the Community Players, present owners of Avalon, it was found necessary to cut the tree down last Friday.

The elm, believed to have been more than 150 years old, probably dated back to the late 18th century. It was mentioned in several of the stories and poems written by the late Mr. Van Dyke.

Honor for Princeton. Princeton's Ground Observer Corps, which next week will complete a year of unbroken round-the-clock operation, will be honored on Tuesday at a ceremony planned by the Eastern Air Defense Command. The Princeton post will be one of five in the State singled out for citation, with special mention going to the organization here. The program will take place at the Trenton Filter Center.

Heywood Greenland, chief observer and captain of the Princeton GOC, has named 16 captains and former captains as those chiefly responsible for the unbroken watch. Each has been responsible for a 24-hour period, seeing that the post (located on lower Springdale Road) has been manned for every two-hour shift.

Past captains include Mrs. Mary Boehm, Mrs. John Fine, Mrs. Thrall Baring-Gould, Mrs. Robert McAllen, E. F. Gryzak and John M. Moore. Past captains are Commander P. W. Yeatman, Mrs. William S. Agar, Mrs. Adelia F. Benham, Mrs. William R. Babcock, Mrs. O. C. Hopper, Rowan Boone, Mrs. John C. Bissell, Mrs. Jr., Mrs. C. C. Martinelli, Mrs. George Bush, and Mrs. J. C. Goodwin. Mrs. Trevor Haning and Mrs. R. F. Westover served as substitutes in this capacity.

Army Units Active. Two Princeton Reserve units are taking part in the Army's annual summer field training program. The 462d Strategic Intelligence Detachment commanded by Lt. Col. R. Kenneth Fairman of Westfield Road is now at the Pentagon in Washington and the 307th Field Artillery Battalion commanded by Lt. Col. Sterling H. Anders of 28 Rollingmead departs this weekend for two weeks' training at Camp drum in northern New York.

Princetonians going on active duty with the 307th, which is a part of New Jersey "Lightning Division," the 78th, include: Lt. Col. Anders, Maj. Joseph W. Miller Jr., Princeton Pike; Captain Donald R. Bryant, 181 Nassau Street; Capt. Frank T. Gorman, Jr., 6 Southern Way; 1st Lt. Stewart H. Brown, 226-C Harrison Street; 1st Lt. Robert R. Porter, 106 Snowden Lane.

Mr. Mayor, Can You Explain This?

Isn't it a fact that you are President and your wife is Secretary and Treasurer of the Central Jersey Land Company which owns the garage property at the corner of Tulane and Spring Streets, across the street from the proposed Tulane Street Parking Project and also across the street from the present Spring Street Public Parking Yard.

Can you explain why you sponsor a plan to condemn properties on which are located a parking yard for 32 cars and houses for 14 people to provide extra parking space for 14 cars across from your building? WHY NOT CONDEMN YOUR OWN LAND AND BUILDINGS WHICH HAVE NO LIVING SPACE, AND NO PUBLIC PARKING NOW?

You must realize the great enhancement in value of your corner property with the advantage of having two large parking areas facing it. IT IS ESTIMATED THAT THE COST TO THE TAXPAYERS FOR DAMAGES TO THE VALUE OF THE OTHER PROPERTIES AND BUILDING OF TULANE PARKING YARD WOULD BE $175,000.00 TO $200,000.00 AND THAT THE INCREASE IN VALUE TO YOUR PROPERTY WOULD BE FROM $30,000.00 TO $40,000.00.

DO YOU THINK IT FAIR THAT THE TAXPAYERS SHOULD BE ASKED TO SHOULDER THIS TREMENDOUS TAX BURDEN FOR SO LITTLE BENEFIT WHEN ONE RESULT IS THE LARGE INCREASE IN THE VALUE TO PROPERTY OWNED BY A CORPORATION OF WHICH YOU ARE PRESIDENT?

ARE YOU WILLING TO URGE THE MEMBERS OF COUNCIL, TO SUPPORT THIS ORDINANCE UNDER THESE CIRCUMSTANCES? CAN YOU EXPLAIN YOUR PART IN THIS SORT OF COSTLY PLANNING?

The taxpayers of Princeton will be anxiously waiting to hear your defense at the July 14th meeting of Council.

Obituaries

Mrs. Ella Angela Kyle, widow of the late Dr. William G. Kyle, died July 5 at her home on Washington Road. She is survived by the Misses Gladys C. and M. Evelyn Kyle of Princeton, and two other daughters; a son, and a brother. Services were held at the Kimble Funeral Home, with interment in Princeton Cemetery.

Thomas Riggs Jr., 37, of 12 Princeton Avenue, died July 5 in a swimming accident at Blue Mountain Lake in the Adirondacks. The tragedy occurred when he dove and struck his head on a submerged rock.

Dr. Riggs, one of the most promising young teacher-scholars in the University's Department of English, was well known for his work in modern literature and particularly for his studies of the Irish writers W. B. Yeats and James Joyce. He had taught also in the creative writing program and this spring co-authored a faculty report concerning Princeton's entrance into the educational television field.

A graduate of Princeton in 1937, Dr. Riggs also received his M.A. and Ph.D. here. He had been awarded leave to study in Europe next year. During his undergraduate years, he was one of the leading promoters of the nation-wide college escapade, the Veterans of Future Wars, and he served with distinction in the African and Italian campaigns of World War II. He is survived by his mother and a sister, Mrs. Jeter A. Isely, of 294 Nassau Street; and his former wife, Henriette.

A memorial service will be held Friday at 3:30 in the chancel of the University Chapel, with the Rev. Albert L. Jamison officiating. Interment will be in Greenmount Cemetery, Baltimore.

Wesley Smith, 14, of 1 Columbus Avenue, Hopewell, died July 3 in Princeton Hospital of what was diagnosed as the rare Rocky Mountain spotted fever, believed to develop from the bite of a tick. His father, Edgar M. Smith, is associated with McLean Engineering Laboratories in Princeton. He is survived also by his mother, a sister and his maternal grandmother.

Mrs. Ellen D. Thompson, formerly of Princeton, died at sea July 1, of a heart attack. Mrs. Thompson was aboard the S.S. Mauretania on her way to this country. The wife of the late Dr. William Payne Thompson, she is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Alfred W. Gardner and Miss Mary Hebard, and two sisters. Griffing, secretary, and Betty Lou Peterson, treasurer. Steven Young was chosen to head the sophomores, along with Ronald Mucha, vice-president; Suzanne Lowe, secretary, and Lucille Hullfish, treasurer.

Miss Wright also announced the following elections: Irene MacConnell, major of girls' patrol; George Toole, major of boys' patrol; Patricia Malcolm, editor of "The Prince;" Raymond Coughlan, editor of "The Tower;" and Doris Petriollo, chairman of the Junior Red Cross Council.

Trenton UHF. An ultra high frequency television station broadcasting from Trenton appears to be on its way for the near future. Announcement has been made that the FCC has granted permission to Peoples Broadcasting (which owns and operates radio station WTTM in Trenton) to build a UHF station. The new station has been assigned UHF Channel 41 and under the FCC order, construction will be permitted to start at the end of this month. New Jersey's only major TV station at present is WATV in Newark, Channel 13, on standard broadcast.

Gifts to Korea. The Princeton Seminary Choir, now touring Japan and Korea as guests of the U. S. Far Eastern Command, will make two gifts during its trip to give concerts in the Orient. The choir director, Dr. David H. Jones, has with him a check for $2,535.01 representing the amount raised on the seminary campus for the Tabitha Orphanage, which houses widows and orphans in South Korea. The figure was raised through contributions from students, faculty, administration members and missionaries in residence during the past year.

Dr. Jones also has a check for $150 from the First Presbyterian Church, New York City. This is a church school contribution which he has been instructed to give to any worthwhile Korean institution of his choice. The church school asks in return only for a picture of the school, church or orphanage which Dr. Jones selects.

Miscellany. Twins, a boy and a girl, have been adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Leyton E. Carter of 60 Harrison Street. They have been named Kevin Thorne and Karen Andrews. Mr. and Mrs. Richard N. Work of 400-D Devereux Avenue have adopted a daughter, Barbara Jane.

DEPENDABILITY

is the other name for DODGE!

Over the years, Dodge cars have rewarded millions of owners with a matchless quality: Dependability. Now this word has been given new meaning by the greatest Dodge of them all—the '53 Action Car:

Dependable Economy

In the 1953 Mobilgas Economy Run, the Dodge V-8 beat all other cars in its class... outperformed all 8's in every price class to establish Dodge as America's Top Economy 8!

Dependable Power-for-Safety

Ten days later, the same Dodge V-8 set 2 new official AAA performance records for standard American cars. Proof of reserve power-for-safety.

Dependable Comfort

Dodge Modern Design does away with "meaningless metal" and waste space outside—provides more comfort space than ever inside. You enjoy more head-room, leg-room and elbow-room.

Dependable Handling Ease

Dodge for '53 brings you new mastery of the road, new maneuverability in traffic, new parking ease. It snugs down on curves like a true sports car.

Dependable Extra-Value Features

Safeguard hydraulic brakes with two brake cylinders in each front wheel... Oilflow ride control... Safety-Rim wheels... electric windshield wipers... foam rubber seat cushions... waterproof ignition system... and many others.

DODGE V-EIGHT CORONET INFLAMAT

Here is our invitation! Come in for a "Road Test Ride." Find out all that Dodge Dependability means in terms of economical power, safety power, riding comfort and handling ease. There is no obligation. You will discover a new kind of car, a new kind of driving enjoyment... at prices that start below many models in the "lowest-priced" field.

Who Comes First - The Taxpayers Or the Chain-Stores?

The fancy plan for new parking calls for two parking lots off Nassau Street beyond Vandeventer Avenue to provide for 142 cars. This area is crowded only a few hours a week and then by patrons of two chain stores. Part of the proposed area now has two semi-public parking lots which enjoy only a small percentage of occupancy.

RELIABLE ESTIMATES PLACE THE COST OF THESE TWO PROJECTS AT $300,000. WHY SHOULD THE TAXPAYERS BE BURDENED WITH THIS TREMENDOUS EXPENSE TO BOOST THE PROFITS OF TWO LARGE CHAIN-STORE CORPORATIONS?

Why haven't these chains used some of their boom profits to provide parking space for their customers? Under the present zoning ordinance any new competitors will be required to spend their own money for parking accommodations.

WHY ARE THE "PLANNERS" SO CONSIDERATE OF THE WELFARE OF THESE TWO NATIONAL COMPANIES AND SO OBLIVIOUS OF THE INTERESTS OF LIFE-LONG PRINCETON RESIDENTS WHOSE HOMES OR BUSINESS PROPERTIES THEY WOULD DESTROY OR TAKE FROM THEM?

You taxpayers will pay the bill so you should come to the Council meeting on July 14th and demand the answers to these questions.

Sometimes, It's a Pleasure

To Lose Business . . .

Two weeks ago, TOWN TOPICS carried this classified advertisement:

WANTED Man or boy to cut grass
Power mower provided. Telephone 3334-M after 8 p.m.

Day after the ad appeared, Mr. 3034-M (name on request) wrote us this letter:

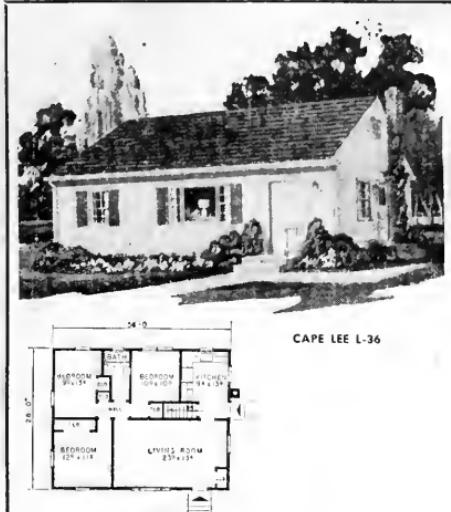

Dear T. T.:

I wish to pass on an instance of the power of your press. The phone started to ring in answer to my ad before I was home. My neighbor who is on our party line answered it to say I wasn't home. In that way he found out what I was hunting for.

When I got home he let the phone ring about five times then he called me and asked if I had someone to cut my grass. I said yes and so he said let the phone ring on the next ones—I'll answer it—I need a cutter, too. Less than two phone rings later he called me up and said he had his desired grass cutter and much thanks for the free ride.

I am sorry but I lost you an account . . .

TOWN TOPICS to Mr. 3034-M (and neighbor):
We repeat, "It's a Pleasure"

This House Can Be Owner-Finished

HERE'S THE WAY IT WORKS:

At our offices you select the house you want from our many Modular Home designs. We modify door plans to include your preferences (larger rooms; awning type windows; breezeways). We assist with financing and recommend a competent contractor to erect your frame, roof deck, sidewalls, and sub floors. All parts are pre-cut for easy workability. Then you move in and finish off the house, with our help.

We've helped build modular homes all over the Princeton area. We'll help you, too.

News of the Theatres

MURRAY THEATRE

For a lot of theatre-goers, the University Players hit their high spot with the current production of "The Infernal Machine" by Jean Cocteau. It's a demanding play, asking for serious understanding, but it would seem that only a blockhead would fail to gather at least glimpse of the powerfully moving quality of the drama, let alone its theatrical excellence.

The Players return to lighter fare next week with a program of three one-acters packaged as "Two Hours Traffic." The interestingly varied program will include: "Hello Out There" by Saroyan; "The Apollo of Bellac" by Giraudoux; and "Red Peppers" by Noel Coward. Something is sure to click.

The full personnel resources of the Players will go into the casting of the one-acters, with assists from guest performers such as Elizabeth Parrish (who starred in the Intime production of "Antigone." Incidentally, the Murray Theatre box office has pointed out that many persons have been turned away because of sellouts at the end of the year, while tickets for the first three performances are usually available.

It hardly need be pointed out here that the Oedipus legend is dynamite, and Cocteau's reworking has it. The Players have given the piece an amazing production, in acting, direction and technical aspects (notably the lighting and sound effects, plus once again, Hugh Hardy's beautiful sets).

The perfection of Selly Weber's performance in a part covering only one of the four acts tends to overshadow other excellent acting by the principals and supporting players. Cocteau has added new interpretation to the Sphinx and Miss Weber pours power into the role of the enigmatic agent of fate (the infernal machine), tentatively offering aid to blind mankind but finally implacable in rendering retributive justice.

Other fine performances come from Vera Fusek (Jocasta), Philip Minor (Oedipus), Thomas Potter (Tiresias) and Charles Schultz (Anubis), and as they have done in their previous productions, the —Continued on Page 14

Players have a high level of competence running throughout the east. Bill Butler added retranslation of parts of the script to his strong direction, with clearly good effect.

Some will certainly argue that by adding psychic representations, Freudian symbols, shifts in emphasis and interpretation, and various other devices, the French genius has lessened the tragedy of Oedipus. The opinion here is that Cocteau used the permanent elements of the legend, showed full poetic imagination and created a more realistic, modern tragedy. In any case, the play is rarely seen on the American stage, so a trip to see this remarkable production is recommended.

BUCKS COUNTY PLAYHOUSE

One Thing After Another, the musical revue presented by the California Strawhatters, continues nightly through Saturday at the Bucks County Playhouse, with a matinee on the closing day. The youthful California group is touring the East for the first time with its latest package of musical numbers, dances and sketches.

"Goodbye Again," the farce-comedy by Allan Scott and George Haight, opens Monday and plays for a week, including Wednesday and Saturday matinees. The play treats the romantic complications facing a novelist on a Midwest lecture tour.

Three veterans of many seasons at the New Hope barn will fill the leading roles. Philip Bourneuf will be featured as the lecturer, while Sara Seegar and Frances Reid will vie for his attentions.

LAMBERTVILLE MUSIC CIRCUS

Citizens Prefer Blondes, one of the top productions in some time at the Music Circus, winds up its two-week run this Sunday evening. "Music in the Air" by Jerome Kern and Oscar Hammerstein opens Tuesday for a week.

"Blondes," starring a delightful Dossie Hollingsworth as Lorelei and with an excellent supporting cast, has been packing 'em in at the Lambertville tent. A double thunderstorm last week forced the cancellation of one sell-out performance, however, when the storms made the tent stagger and produced a minor floor inside.

Knight Appointed. Mrs. Edgar Palmer, president of Princeton Municipal Improvement, Inc., has announced the appointment of Richard W. Knight as the new manager of The Playhouse and the Garden theatres. Mr. Knight, who has served as acting manager since March, succeeds Charles P. Winkelmann, who resigned last month because of ill health after 20 years on the local film scene.

Mr. Knight, a graduate of Duke University, has previously served in various capacities for the Prudential Circuit (to which the Princeton theatres belong.) Most recently he was the manager of the New Canaan, Conn., Playhouse. He is 36 years old and married.

THE PLAYHOUSE

Shane (Thurs.-Tues.) is a great motion picture, and a western at that. Extraordinary effects are drawn from ordinary materials: the familiar story elements are homesteaders trying to farm a grant of land, opposed by the big cattle ranchers, and the duel between "good guy" and "bad guy."

Softball Standings Unchanged. Two teams—Nassau Social and Kings Inn—continued unbeaten last week in the Eagles softball leagues. The former is now 8-0 but has only a one-game lead over the Artistic Clippers (7-1) in the National League. Kings Inn has taken its first six starts, with Swinerton's Gulf (4-3) its nearest pursuer.

In the American League, Teague's Stars won twice last week, hammering out an 11-5 win over Gallup and Robinson and then coming behind with a two-run rally in the sixth to edge the last-place Ex-Stars, 4-3.

Haggard threw both games for Teague, helping in the attack against Gallup and Robinson when he clouted a home run in the second with two aboard. Pete Samino was the Ex-Stars pitcher who nearly staged the upset of the season, as his outfit led 3-1 after four and a half innings only to see Teague's come back with one in the fifth and two in the sixth.

The Eagles won on three successive evenings last week, trouncing Gallup and Robinson, 7-3; the Ex-Stars, 13-3; and then again avenging over the Sportsman's Club, 9-2. Joe Rauch pitched and limited the Eagles to the latter triumph, limiting the losers to six scattered hits and aiding his cause with three bunts. Bill Murphy chipped in with a homer for the victors as the Sportsmen used three pitchers: Sam Lisi, Sam and Joe Nini.

The standings as of Monday (based on the number of official games filed with the Eagles):

McCreedy Wins Another. A six-run first inning made Huek McCreedy's eighth victory a breeze last week as he coasted to a 13-2 win over ETS. The Nassau Social Club picked up its seventh tally in the fifth inning and then slammed through for six more in the final frame.

Gene Pierie is still hitting at a .500 clip with Jackie Murphy at .470 and Howie Cupples at .423 to pace the league-leaders' attack. If the Social Club could win its second game of the season against runner-up Artistic this week, the victory would virtually decide the outcome of the National League race.

RCA went down before the Clippers by a resounding 20-0 count, Tom Collins limiting the losers to four hits. Bill Kieffer lead the 16-blow attack for Artistic, pounding out a pair of homers in the victory's second inning.

The only close contest in the National League last week went to the National Guard over the World Federalists by an 8-5 margin. Mike Lisi was the winning hurler, holding the Federalists to three hits but giving up five runs as his mates were charged with three misplays. The triumph gave the Guardsmen—Continued on Page 16

Contingency plans announced last week, Goldie Field will not be available for softball play. One of the other University fields is to be used while Goldie undergoes repairs, but team managers have been instructed to follow the original schedule of locations prepared by the Eagles.

Following Their Fathers. The Eastern League, a Class A circuit with teams in eight New York and Pennsylvania towns, has three young players in action whose names were extremely well known long before they reached organized or even college ball. They are Earl Averill, Jr., son of the former Cleveland Indians' star who came to Reading via the University of Oregon; Dick Camilli, son of Dolph Camilli, one-time National League slugger; and Dave Sisler, whose father and brother have preceded him as fine players.

Averill, hitting .309 for Reading, is working toward a berth with Cleveland. Camilli has averaged one run batted in for his first 41 games and has collected 12 doubles, two triples and five home runs, is a 20-year-old alumnus of Santa Clara University. He'll play for the Detroit Tigers.

Sisler, who got $40,000 for signing with the Boston Red Sox, has compiled a great 4-1 record since mid-June. He'll work toward Lou Boudreau's American League entry via Louisville of the American Association, and may move up to that Double A circuit before Labor Day.

Sisler turned in an 11-2 triumph over fourth-place Elmira in his first start, aiding his cause with three hits in five trips to the plate. Williams then beat him 9-2, but he was followed with three more victories, and Albany has moved from fifth to third place since Dave joined the team.

He has fanned 21, given up 11 walks, and is credited with a good curve and far-above-average speed. Lou Boudreau has picked his Red Sox to win the A. L. pennant in '55 or '56. There is good reason to believe that one of the Sox starting pitchers even before that time may be Princeton's Dave Sisler.

Crew Sets Record But Loses. The string of rounds at three a day for four days proved more than the Princeton 250-lb. crew could withstand last week at Henley, England, and the Tigers bowed out in the semi-finals for the Thames Challenge Cup. They were beaten by the Royal Air Force eight which went on to win the championship.

and conquered two more opponents on Thursday and Friday. One of them was the Ruder Gemeinschaft of Germany, an entry which outweighed Princeton by 32 pounds to the man. In trimming the Europeans by a length, the Tigers shaved six seconds off the course record at Henley, finishing the mile and 5/16ths in a good 6:45. They hold the Carnegie course record, too—in some five seconds faster time.

The R.A.F. boat not only got away at 45 but held that pace for a full minute, virtually winning the race right there. The high beat gave it a half-length lead, and the best the Princetonians could do was to cut the margin to a third of a length at the finish. With the Kent School eliminated in the quarter-finals, it was an all-English finish for the first time in six years.

Ten women members of the Springdale Golf Club were competing this week in the Trenton District Women's Golf Tournament, with Mrs. James Whelan of Stanworth the defending champion in the Class A division.

Play was held over the Yardley, Trenton and Hopewell courses. Others competing in Class A were Mrs. Thomas James, Mrs. John Grover, Mrs. Donald Fruland, Mrs. Robert Shaw, Mrs. C. O. Jones, Mrs. Uzal McCarter; in Class B, Miss Margaret Regan and Mrs. Jane Lauck.

cent skill, has produced and directed a powerful drama with sweep, suspense, technical detail and authenticity. Alan Ladd, Jean Arthur, Van Heflin, Brandon De Wilde and Jack Palance are the players, supported by magnificent Technicolor photography. Don't miss it.

Stalag 17 (Wed.-Sat.) takes place in a single barrack housing a group of American prisoners of war and has a superb balance between grim drama and comedy. The New York stage success has been transferred to the screen without any basic change and the actors do a powerful and moving job of portraying the gallery of the various P.O.W.'s. William Holden, Don Taylor and Otto Preminger head the excellent cast, which was well directed by Billy Wilder.

THE GARDEN

The Beast From 20,000 Fathoms (Thurs.-Sat.) rates as above-average science fiction. The technical effects men have cooked up a good monster for the occasion. It's supposedly been frozen in the Arctic for several million centuries, is freed by an atomic explosion and does quite a bit of harm (notably wrecking little old New York) before being destroyed.

Take Me to Town (Mon.-Tues.) is a dull little Western-romantic comedy in Technicolor. Ann Sheridan is suspected by the law, escapes, turns showgirl, marries widower (Sterling Hayden) with three kids. Everything comes out fine.

Woman in the Window (Wed.-Thurs.), a 1945 success being revived, tells a story of murder and blackmail in first-rate fashion. The fast-moving melodrama is well acted by Edward G. Robinson, Joan Bennett, Raymond Massey, Dan Duryea.

Pony Express (Fri.-Sat.) glamourizes the joining with the Pacific via pony express in good, reliable Technicolor Western fashion. Charlton Heston (as Buffalo Bill Cody) and Forrest Tucker (Wild Bill Hickock) trade hatchets and bullets with Indians, evil white men. Rhonda Fleming and Jan Sterling are along for romantic reasons.
